

Muddy Water Beaver Dam Band

Music R.W. Singer and Keith Kolecki, Lyrics R.W. Singer © 2003

Once upon a time lived two beaver brothers, Keith and Cornelius Beaver. They lived in a big birch tree with their big family. Keith played guitar, Cornelius played mandolin and they both loved singing. One day while the beaver brothers sang songs on the...

113 bpm 4/4

| G | | | D G |

G

Goin' down to the river, guitar in my hand, gonna play the best I can in the

D G D G

Muddy Water Beaver Dam Band

G

Goin' down to the river, got my mandolin, gonna play the best I can in the

D G D G

Muddy Water Beaver Dam Band

G

Goin' down to the river, song in our heads, sing the best I can in the

D G

Muddy Water Beaver Dam Band

C

G

Well, our parents say we can't play and our sisters think we can't sing

am D

Our brothers run for cover when they hear us tune our strings.

C em F

You see we're unappreciated in the home where we were raised

C G C C# D7

So we formed the Beaver Dam Band and play!

G

Goin' down to the river, if you love to play, every instrument's OK in the

D G

Muddy Water Beaver Dam Band

G

Goin' down to the river, sing our favorites songs, everyone belongs in the

D G

Muddy Water Beaver Dam Band

G

All kids are welcome, come all Singing Strummers. Ella we know ya bang the old bongos

D G D G

and we're lookin' for a drummer

